FIGHT FOR IT

Genesis 27:37-40

[37] Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, "Indeed I have made him your master, and all his brethren I have given to him as servants; with grain and wine I have sustained him. What shall I do now for you, my son?"

[38] And Esau said to his father, "Have you only one blessing, my father? Bless me—me also, O my father!" And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

[39] Then Isaac his father answered and said to him: "Behold, your dwelling shall be of the fatness of the earth, And of the dew you shall break his yoke from your neck."

Isaac tells a weeping Esau that he cannot revoke the blessing given to Jacob, which made Jacob master over Esau and guaranteed him prosperity.

Isaac prophesies that Esau will live away from fertile lands, survive by the sword, serve his brother, but eventually break Jacob's yoke.

Jacob's blessing is Irrevocable Blessing: Isaac explains that he made Jacob lord and provider, leaving little to give Esau.

Esau's Response: Esau cries out for a blessing, weeping loudly upon learning his brother received the blessing because he knew that there is nothing you can compare the blessings from father to children with.

Prophetic Fate (vv. 39-40): Location: Esau would live away from the fertility of the earth and the dew of heaven (a less fruitful land). Lifestyle: He would live by his sword (implying a violent or nomadic life).

Subjection: He would serve his brother.

Freedom: Eventually, he would become restless and break Jacob's yoke from his neck.

Fighting for your destiny requires a combination of spiritual alignment, mental resilience, and relentless action.

You need to treat your purpose as a prize to be won rather than a gift to be wished for.

It involves identifying your purpose through reflection, cultivating deep faith to overcome adversity, and taking daily, disciplined steps to act on that vision.

Here are key strategies to fight for your destiny based on spiritual and personal development principles:

1. Discover and Define Your Purpose: You cannot fight for what you do not know. Actively seek clarity on why you were created through prayer, meditation, and self-reflection.

2. Engage in Spiritual Warfare:

2 Corinthians 10:4-6

[4]For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds,

[5]casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ,

[6]and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled".

Use prayer, specifically declaring "dangerous" or targeted prayers, to overcome obstacles and "destiny busters". This includes using the Word of God as a shield to extinguish doubts, fear and opposing forces.

3. Cultivate a Strong Mindset:

Isaiah 40:31

[31]But those who wait on the Lord Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint.

Build resilience by maintaining positivity and faith, especially during seasons of delay or rejection. Starve your doubts and feed your faith by focusing on promises rather than contrary evidence.

4. Take Relentless Action:

Discipline yourself to act on your goals. "In all labor there is profit" (Proverbs 14:23), so avoid laziness and actively work toward your vision.

5. Surround Yourself with Right People:

1 Corinthians 15:33

[33]Do not be deceived: "Evil company corrupts good habits."

Connect with mentors, destiny helpers, and positive influencers who align with your purpose.

6. Overcome Fear and Excuses:

2 Timothy 1:7

[7]For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind".

Joshua 1:9

[9]Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

Do not surrender to procrastination or fear. Stop giving unnecessary excuses.

All these disqualify you from your potential.

7. Anchor in God:

Psalms 62:6-8

[6]He only is my rock and my salvation; He is my defense; I shall not be moved.

[7]In God is my salvation and my glory; The rock of my strength, And my refuge, is in God.

[8]Trust in Him at all times, you people; Pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us".

Recognize that your destiny is spiritual; rely on divine empowerment, obedience, and grace to overcome impossible situations.

It is never too late to start; Moses, for example, began his destiny at age eighty.
