DAILY DEVOTION YOU ARE WRITING A STORY

Pastor A.S.O Olaleye

9th June, 2025

THE LIBERATION HOUR

2 CORINTHIANS 3:2B NLT 2 Your lives are a letter written in our hearts; everyone can read it and recognize our good work among you.

Every day by your actions you are "writing" your story.

One purpose of life on earth is to give us each an opportunity to "write" our own story, which we will be able to share and enjoy throughout eternity. We are here to learn, and what we experience and learn will be shared with many.

Humans love stories. Facts and figures can sometimes be boring, but when anyone tells what happened to them, it usually draws our attention.

Everyone knows and loves the story of David and Goliath.

We all love a good story. But what does every good story require? It must involve some problem or difficulty that is ultimately overcome so there is a happy ending. These are the stories we love to hear.

The good news is that, because of God's love, your story will at least have a happy ending. But you can make your story more interesting by the choices you make now.

As you know, there can be many problems and difficulties in a story. But how the story finishes is what's most important.

You may be facing some terrible circumstances right now. But your story is not over. The trouble you are facing now is what will make your story interesting as it is told in the future. You can overcome! God is there to help you! You can face difficulties with God's help and overcome (just like David did with Goliath.)

So don't judge your story too quickly. Life is not over. Your story is still being written. Some of the best and most exciting parts are still to come.

It's too soon for a final judgment.

PRAYER: I am writing a story with my challenges, My story is going to bring God glory with a happy ending in the name of Jesus Christ, AMEN.
