Psalm 119:5 (NLT)

“Oh, that my actions would consistently reflect your decrees!”

Do you struggle with consistency?

Does this express your heart cry as well? The Psalmist cried out, “Oh, that my actions would consistently reflect your decrees!”.

Now there is a desire I can relate to in my walk with Christ. It’s the longing of my heart to consistently reflect God’s will and ways in all my actions, but like the psalmist, I too often fall short. Temptations crowd into my life like unwelcome intruders seeking to control my attitude and conform me to this world.

The struggle within is fought in the battleground of my mind.

Thankfully, the psalmist continues with helpful insight on how our actions can consistently reflect God’s decrees with the power to overcome temptation.

In verse 9 of Psalms 119, he asks and answers a common question when living in an impure world. “How can a young person stay pure? By obeying Your word.”

If I’m to consistently reflect God’s ways, I must know and obey God’s Word. In verse 11, he says, “I have hidden Your Word in my heart, that I might not sin against You.” One translation uses the word “treasured” for hidden. When we treasure God’s Word and hide it in our hearts, we have a formidable weapon against temptation. In fact, the New Testament refers to God’s Word as the Sword of the Spirit in the arsenal that God equips the Christian with for our conflict with Satan (Ephesians 6:17). Jesus used th e weapon of God's Word against Satan in the temptations He faced. Three times, the tempter tried to lure Jesus into temptation by following his lead, and three times, Jesus responded, "It is written..." (Matthew 4). What a model to follow in our struggles with sin and temptation.

If your desire is for your actions to consistently reflect God's decrees, you must know what those decrees are and treasure them in your heart. To treasure something is to place a high value on it! Do you treasure the Word of God in your life? His Word is truth. And it's the truth, you know, that will set you free! Don't let the enemy keep you in the dark. The psalmist discovered how to live pure in an impure world.

He found victory through the power of God's revealed Word. He says, "Your Word is a lamp to guide my feet and a light for my path" (Psalms 119:105, NLT).

You don't have to remain in the dark. Let God's Word protect you in an impure world and be the light that guides your path each day.

Prayer: Oh God my father, let the power and the authority of Your word guide and protect me and my family in the journey of life in Jesus name, Amen!
