END OF YEAR PRAYER MEETING - DAY 3

Pastor A.S.O Olaleye

31st December, 2022

What you need to do to make God work through you.

It's important to know that Christianity is not wishing and waiting for God to do everything.

Christianity is a responsibility.

The first thing that makes God to remember with speed is Mercy. Mercy precedes favor. Psalms 102:13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion; For the time to favor her, Yes, the set time, has come.

Ask God for His mercy, because some of your actions might have made God to forget you.

But you can obtain mercy... because, the bible says in Hebrews 4 vs. 16 that we should come boldly to the throne of grace to obtain mercy.

Lamentations 3 vs. 37 says it is of the lords mercy that we are not consumed His compassion does not fail they are new every morning great is His faithfulness.

This morning the mercy of God shall speak for you.

What else do I do to make God to work in my life, the second thing is, you must plead your case with God in prayers.

Isaiah 43:26 Put Me in remembrance; Let us contend together;

State your case, that you may be acquitted.

The word says declare which area of your life do you want God to work on.

Get hold of the word of God in that area and declare it to Him. If it is the issue of health, pray with the scripture on health, 1st peter 2 vs. 24, Jeremiah 8 vs. 22.

Another thing to do to make God work in you is to make a vow before the Lord.

Hannah was childless for so many years until she vowed to give the child back to God. She told God to bless her with a child and after sometime she will give the child back to God.

God did, she kept the vow and God later blessed her with many more children.

1st Samuel chapter 1. Hannah prayed, she appeared in Shiloh every year but not until she made a vow her answer did not come. Maybe all you need to do is to make a vow. A vow to the lord, it could be money or something to do for God If He does this or that for you.

END OF YEAR PRAYER MEETING - DAY 3

Whatever you give or do for God is not in vain.

When Hannah gave Samuel to the Lord, not only did Samuel become very great but God gave her more children.

God moves with speed when a vow is in place. He stands up to the challenge.

I strongly believe your long awaited change has finally come. I bless you in the name of the Lord and command all your struggles to come to an end in Jesus name.

How can I know what God's timing is?

The first thing we need to understand about God's timing is that it is perfect, just as all of God's ways are perfect.

Psalms 18:30 As for God, His way is perfect; The word of the Lord is proven; He is a shield to all who trust in Him.

Galatians 4:4 But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law.

God's timing is never early, and it's never too late.

In fact, from before our birth until the moment we take our last earthly breath, our sovereign God is accomplishing His divine purposes in our lifetimes.

He is in complete control of everything and everyone from everlasting to everlasting. No event in history has put so much as a wrinkle in the timing of God's eternal plan, which He designed before the foundation of the world.

One would think, then, that by understanding the sovereignty of our Creator, patience and waiting would come a little more easily. Unfortunately, however, that's not always the case. Our human nature can make waiting for God's perfect timing a difficult thing to do. In fact, in the hustle and bustle of our frenzied lives, we often find it difficult to wait for anything or anyone. We want what we want now. And with our modern technological advances, we're often able to get what we want now. As a result, we are not only losing our patience, but also finding it increasingly difficult to discern God's timing.

Patience is a spiritual fruit (Galatians 5:22), and Scripture makes it clear that God is pleased with us when we display this virtue: "Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for Him" (Psalm 37:7), for God is good to those who wait for Him (Lamentations 3:25). And our patience often reveals the degree of trust we have in God's timing. We must remember that God operates according to His perfect and foreordained eternal schedule, not ours. We should take great comfort in knowing that, when we wait on the LORD, we receive divine energy and strength: "But those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint" (Isaiah 40:31). The psalmist reiterates: "Wait on the LORD; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart; wait, I say, on the LORD!" (Psalm 27:14).

Another key to understanding God's timing is trust. In fact, our ability to wait on the Lord is largely related to how much we trust Him. When we trust in God with all of our heart, forgoing reliance on our own, often erroneous understanding of circumstances, He will indeed give us direction (Proverbs 3:5-6). "The LORD's unfailing love surrounds the man who trusts Him" (Psalm 32:10). To fully trust God, however, we need to know God. And the best way to know Him is through His Word. God's divine energy is released in our lives through His inspired Word (1 Thessalonians 2:13). The work of God's Word includes saving (Romans 10:17; 1 Peter 1:23), teaching and training (2 Timothy 3:16-17), guiding (Psalm 119:105), protecting (Psalm 119:114,117), strengthening (Psalm 119:28), and making us wise (Psalm 119:97-100). If we study and meditate on His Word daily, His timing will also become clear to us.

When we question God's timing, it is often because we are looking for guidance or deliverance from a difficult situation. We can rest assured, however, that our heavenly Father knows exactly where we are in our lives at every moment. He either put us there or is allowing us to be there, all for His own perfect purpose. In fact, God often uses trials to strengthen our patience, allowing our Christian faith to mature and become complete (James 1:3-4). And we know that all things – including these difficult trials – work out for the good of those who love God (Romans 8:28). God does indeed hear the cries of His children and will answer those cries according to His perfect will and timing. "A righteous man may have many troubles; the LORD delivers him from them all" (Psalm 34:19). The plans God has for His children are good plans – to help us, not hurt us (Jeremiah 29:11).
